Property description:
Charming, antique-filled jewel of a condo in Boston’s lively South End. First floor (ground floor to EU visitors), 1 bedroom (NOTE: bed is a double/full bed w/ head- and footboards, so if you are more comfortable with more space, this might not be for you), 1 bath flat in historic 1901 brownstone. High ceilings, overlooking beautiful, quiet garden w/ waterfall in backyard. Linens provided. Some closet and drawer space. Flat-screen TV w/ cable and internet/wifi. Dishwasher. A/C. Coin-operated washing machine in basement. In the center of the city, within walking distance (7 blocks) from Copley Square and the major T stops. Also within walking distance to Boston's famous parks (Boston Common and the Public Garden) and museums (the MFA, Isabella Stewart Gardner.) Step out front door to a world of restaurants, shops, historic parks and gardens, museums, and public transportation.
